Paradise Community Chorus opens the Ridge holiday season with energetic excitement in the concert series, "It's the Most Wonderful Time of the Year." These concerts feature fun and meaningful songs of the season, with both new and traditional favorites. Director Sam Gronseth will lead off with the title song, including a supporting cast of 70 members of Paradise Community Chorus. The group is made up of people from throughout the Ridge, with members ranging in age from mid teens to mid ninties. Songs include holiday favorites such as Let It Snow, Winter Wonderland, and Feliz Navidad. In addition the chorus will sing a wide variety of other pieces including There's Still My Joy, made popular by the Indigo Girls and a wonderful arrangement of the traditional Spanish carol Zumba,Zumba.

Our special guests include the Paradise High School Chorus, under the direction of Richard Gray. You will see this wide range of folks working together toward the same goal, making great music on the Ridge! Concert dates are Saturday, December 2 at 7pm and Sunday, December 3 at 3pm. Both concerts are held at Paradise Performing Arts Center on Nunneley Road. Santa arrives at 2pm for pictures, and doors open at 2:30pm. Please join us as we kick-off the holiday season in a powerful musical fashion with "It's the Most Wonderful Time of the Year."

Tickets are $10, and available from any chorus member. They are also available at the following outlets: Paradise at PostNet, Fuller's Flower, and Back at the Ranch; in Magalia at Whisker Pines.
